And this is Kurt Gowdy and Tony Kubick here in Oakland. We've gone 5 innings. The Oakland A's are leading the Baltimore Orioles with three runs, five hits, and no errors, no runs, two hits, no errors. Or Baltimore the scoring all came.

00:00:23

In the second inning, when Oakland knocked Jim Palmer out of the back, Palmer was wild high today, and when he did come down with his fastball, he didn't have that hop on it that he had in the opening game of this American League Series last Saturday.

00:00:39

Ray posses up here in the replay in the second inning with two men on and he lines a double into the left field corner and has Don Baylor chasing it, scoring gene tennis and Vic Davalillo that gave Oakland A2. Nothing lead.

00:00:58

And up behind Posse game * Green, who bats 9th in the order of their second baseman.

00:01:14

And there's the double by * Green into the left field.

00:01:18

To produce the third run for the A's, and that's been.

00:01:20

It by the blue.

00:01:22

Has been rough. His walk 2 is only struck out one, but the right handers can't get around on him. Today they've been flying out popping up. He's very quick and they have the top of the order up, right and that's what we mean. They're hitting the ball to the right side. The right hand is Redman drowns out. He previously walked and grounded out. We're going to pause.

One down for Baltimore in the 6th inning, Bobby Grich has struck out and flied to right, which has had one out of 14 in this playoff. The outfield playing the right handers toward right again. They can't get around on him and a pop up in the shallow right.

00:02:12

Moving out is the second baseman * Green, or two lane, that fastball of his must be tailing away.

00:02:19

A bit, or it's exploding on them, Tony, and they can't get around.

00:02:22

I don't know who did the Scotty reports for this Oakland team on the Baltimore Orioles, but he has done a way of a job because Holtzman yesterday.

00:02:29

Threw about 8:00.

00:02:30

Breaking balls the entire game, all fastballs away blue, is putting the same kind of ball games, keeping the ball away from the right-handed hitters, not letting them pull. And it's a great scouting report. Billy Herman.

00:02:42

Scattered the Orioles, in fact, * Williams paid him credit yesterday, showed me a flip book and he said he gave us a great report. Paul won the Paul Blair was grounded out single. He got the first hit off by the blue in the 4th inning.

00:02:57

Vital blue, 24 years old ball back one of the 320 game winners for the A's this year, Holtzman yesterday pitched a masterpiece.

00:03:09

Jim Hunter won in Baltimore and Blue now trying to wrap up the American League championship.

Earned run average of 3.28 he kept getting better as the year went along.

00:03:32

Or to grab all the right field, Reggie Jackson has been busy out there today. He has it, and the Orioles are down 123 and the 6th at the end of five and a half. It is open 3 in Baltimore. Nothing.
